

CHRIST FOR ALL NATIONS

We welcome you to CFAN.

Our buildings and dorms are a gift to us from God. Please observe our rules when visiting.

- Please turn lights off when not in use. Check outside front lights at night to be sure they are turned off
- Keep your laundry to a minimum. Use your towels at least three days before laundering
- Clean the stove after each meal. Do not use abrasive cleaners on stove. Instructions for cleaning are in bottom drawer by refrigerator
- Rinse the dishes before loading them into the dishwasher
- Video viewing must be ok'd by staff, please no loud music in rooms.
- No animals of any kind.
- Staff prayer time 7:30 a.m.
- Prayer Room is a special set apart room. Please use it for prayer only. Groups do not let your youth use it for a play room. We invite everyone while here to spend a few hours in the Prayer Room praying for CFAN, The Navajo Nation and the World.
- When muddy, remove your shoes at the side door. (Please wipe shoes off on the mat)

- Groups show courtesy by limiting your time in the bathrooms and by limiting the amount of water that you use.
- Youth must be supervised when climbing the mesas.
- Originally, our septic system was not designed to host large groups; therefore, if you are in a large group we ask you to put as much paper waste in the trashcan as possible.
- No Boys in girls room no girls in boy's room.
- No open toe shoes
- Be aware of your surroundings at all times
- Stay away from the wildlife on the premises.

Our climate is very dry: Drink plenty of water, use lip balm and sunscreen. During the summer months, you will also need bug repellent. Proper clothing and footwear are needed, as the evenings can be cool, even in the summer. Do watch for snakes!

Thank you for obeying the rules. We hope that you enjoy your stay and pray God's blessing upon you.
